

SENATOR CROSBY: Take the exam.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...get that, right.

SENATOR CROSBY: Take the education. But it's still just to drive to school and back.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, we don't change...

SENATOR CROSBY: Something I read....I'm sorry, Doug. Something I read some place along the line made me feel that that rule was being changed, and it is not. I just wanted to be sure because I'm all for the driver's ed, I'm not against...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: We're not expanding the school permit, other than...

SENATOR CROSBY: Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...putting a requirement that within a year after you get it you're...

SENATOR CROSBY: Okay, okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...going to have to take the course.

SENATOR CROSBY: The reason I bring that up is that I had a letter from a woman who was in an accident, a young 14-year-old hit her head on, who was in the car alone, had a school permit and no one was with him, and this happened in town, in the City of Lincoln. So then when I went back and looked at some things, and I looked at this, I was a bit concerned that maybe we would change that. I don't think we should change that. That has nothing to do with that accident. I mean he shouldn't have been driving. But I just wanted to be sure. You can have the rest of my time, if you want.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Senator Crosby. I believe that Senator Hillman's amendment, and I don't...

SENATOR CROSBY: I am concerned about that.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...not Senator Hillman's amendment, I think she had something dealing...well, that was a special permission for special circumstances. But I'm not aware, Senator Crosby,
